2. How super works

Super is an important way for you to save for the future

Superannuation (super) is a long-term investment which is, in part, compulsory and the sooner you start putting money into your account, the better off you can be when you retire. Tax concessions and other government benefits generally make super one of the best long-term investment vehicles.

Growing your super

With regular superannuation guarantee (SG) contributions from an employer, and with investment earnings on that money, a person's super savings will usually grow over time. For many people, SG contributions alone probably won't be enough to fund a comfortable retirement. If you are an employee, you can make extra contributions (in addition to SG contributions) to help grow your super with:

- > Before-tax contributions – salary sacrifice super contributions that are deducted from your before-tax income, or
- > After-tax contributions – extra contributions made from your after-tax income. Depending on your income and other eligibility criteria set out in government laws, if you make an after-tax contribution to your super you may be eligible to receive a Government co-contribution.

You can make tax deductible before-tax contributions to grow your super, as well as after-tax contributions. There are annual limits (caps) on how much can be contributed by you or on your behalf to your super, without you incurring additional tax. There are other limitations on the acceptance of contributions by a superannuation fund, depending on the type of contribution, your age and employment status. To learn more, information is available at www.ato.gov.au or from the Trustee website at: www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/.

If you have a number of super accounts you may be paying fees for each account, so consider if it's beneficial for you to consolidate your superannuation accounts into your Active Super Choice account after taking into account any insurance cover you may have. We can help you find other super accounts and transfer them into your Active Super Choice account. Simply go to www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/.

We have to transfer your account to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) where your account is below $6,000 and 'inactive'. It will be inactive if in the last 16 months there has been no contributions or rollovers, no changes to investment options and you have not made or changed a binding nomination and there is no insurance on the account.

Accessing your super

There are limitations on withdrawals from superannuation. You usually can't access your super until you are aged 60, but there are some special circumstances where you can withdraw it earlier. To learn more about accessing your super visit www.visionsuper.com.au/super/accessingyoursuper.

It's your super, it's your choice

Normally you can tell your employer where you want your SG contributions to be paid. But in some cases, it depends on the nature of your employment. If you don't make a choice or tell your employer where you want your SG contributions to be paid, they'll pay your SG contributions into your stapled super fund, or if you do not have a stapled fund, then into the employer's preferred super fund.

Visit the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Moneysmart website, www.moneysmart.gov.au for more information on how super works.

Like most super funds, percentage based investment fees and costs also apply depending on the investment option you are invested in.

Ease and convenience

Looking after your super has never been easier with web chat, mobile app, email or the traditional phone call. We can help you with all your general super questions in the manner that is most convenient to you. Contributing is also easy. If you want to add more to your super, direct debit, BPAY and cheque are all accepted.

Run only to benefit our members

Active Super Choice is part of a fund that is a 'profit for members' fund. Active Super Choice is not distributed by financial advisers. We don't pay dividends to shareholders. Instead, we reinvest any profits for the benefit of members.

Competitive returns

We aim to achieve competitive, long-term investment performance for members. Investment returns are also published on our website (www.activesuper.com.au/investing/investment-performance-and-unit-pricing) allowing you to track investment performance. Investment returns are not guaranteed. Please note past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Advice and education

Active Super Choice members have access to great quality support and advice. Financial advice is provided under the Australian Financial Services Licence of a third party, Industry Funds Services Limited ABN 54 007 016 195, AFSL 232514. Advice limited to your membership of the Fund, that is not subject to ongoing review (called 'intrafund' advice) and some topics within intra-fund advice are available at no extra cost to you as the cost of intra-fund advice is included in the Fund's administration fees and costs.

Insurance for Active Super Choice members

Choose who your super goes to

You have the ability to make either preferred beneficiary or binding death benefit nominations.

Choice of investment strategy

Active Super Choice provides an interest in Vision Super that is invested in your selected investment option. You have a choice from a wide range of investment options, offering a variety of investment strategies that may suit your investment time frame, long-term goals and risk profile.

Retirement bonus

Access to a Retirement bonus when transferring from this product to a Vision Super account based pension (other than a Vision Non-commutable account based pension (a transition to retirement pension)), is subject to the relevant terms and conditions. Refer to www.visionsuper.com.au/retire/bonus for further details including the terms and conditions.

4. Risks of super

All investments, including super, carry risk. Super funds invest in a diverse range of assets, including Australian and overseas shares, private equity, property, bonds, credit, infrastructure and cash which are included in different investment strategies. Each investment strategy has a different risk profile depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy.

Those assets offering the highest long-term returns, such as equities, may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. The significant risks that may be relevant to your Active Super Choice investment include:

- > Equity risk
- > Inflation and interest rate risk
- > Credit risk
- > Liquidity risk
- > Currency risk
- > Operational risk
- > Changes to government policy and legislation, and
- > ESG/climate risk.

Investment strategies usually involve balancing the potential returns from chosen investments with the risks associated with them.

Diversifying investments is a strategy that allows money to be allocated to a range of assets in order to manage risk, which includes reducing the volatility (up and down fluctuations) of investments. The appropriate level of risk for you will depend on a variety of factors, including your age, your investment time frame, whether you have other savings outside of super, and your risk tolerance.

Investment returns are not guaranteed. Over time, the value of your super may go up and down. The level of investment earnings will vary and the returns you receive in the past may not be the same as those you receive in the future. There is a risk that you may lose money or that the cost of living increases faster than your super grows leaving you with inadequate savings for your retirement. Superannuation and tax laws may change in the future affecting your financial and retirement planning. You should try to stay informed about changes to superannuation and tax laws and consider how these changes may affect you.

The information about risks shown here is general information only and does not consider your objectives, financial situation or needs. It may be worth consulting a professional financial adviser to assist in developing an investment and savings strategy that will help you achieve your retirement goals, taking into account your personal circumstances (including risk tolerance).

More information about the risks of investing in super is set out in our Active Super Saver Choice Investment guide. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision.

Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

Privacy

We are fully committed to complying with the Australian Privacy Principles in the way that information is collected, stored and used. Full details on how this is achieved are contained within the Fund's Privacy Policy. A copy of the Fund's Privacy Policy is available at www.activesuper.com.au or by calling 1300 300 820.

The risk and return characteristics associated with each asset class are considered in the risk profiles associated with each Premixed options. The Managed cash option is a single sector option, invested in the cash asset class. The risk and return objectives of the option are outlined in the Single sector option in the Active Super Choice Investment guide.

You should consider the likely investment return, risk and your investment timeframe when choosing an option to invest in. Past performance is no indication of future performance. Details for the High Growth option have been included as this option is used in the fee example on page 6.

The investment objectives are not forecasts or predictions. They simply represent a benchmark against which the Trustee monitors performance.

[^] The risk of negative returns is based on a Standard Risk Measure in industry guidance and allows members to compare investment options that are estimated to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20-year period. This Risk Measure is not a complete assessment of all forms of investment risk. For instance it does not state what the size of a negative return could be, or indicate the potential for a positive return to be less than a member may require to meet their objectives. It also does not take into account the impact of administration fees and tax on the likelihood of negative returns.

6. Fees and costs

The Fees and costs summary below shows the fees and other costs that you may be charged, if you are invested in the High growth option, and can be used to compare fees and costs between different superannuation products. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole.

The fees and costs for other investment options are different. You should read all the information about fees and other costs, including information set out in our additional guide titled Active Super Choice Fees and costs guide, because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Consumer advisory warning

Did you know? Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser†. To find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

†Fees and costs for Active Super Choice are not negotiable.

More information about the fees and costs that apply to Active Super Choice (including fee definitions and the fee capping rules) is set out in our additional guide titled Active Super Choice Fees and costs. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision. Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

Keep in mind that the Trustee can change the level of fees and costs that apply without your consent, but we will give you at least 30 days prior notice of any material increase in fees or charges. Increases in costs will not be notified in advance. Changes to estimated fees and costs (arising from higher costs) may be updated on our website at www.activesuper.com.au/super/fees-and-costs

There may be circumstances where the super fee capping rules may apply to you and your investments. These circumstances are outlined in our additional guide titled Active Super Choice Fees and costs guide.

If you choose to obtain advice from a Vision Super Financial Planner (VSFP), you may be charged a fee on a user pays basis based on the type of advice you receive. 7. How super is taxed

The following is a summary of the key tax rules specifically relating to superannuation at the date of preparation of the PDS. These rules are complex and frequently change. The tax applicable to your superannuation depends on your personal circumstances. For information relating to your personal circumstances or the impact of proposed Government changes, speak to a taxation adviser.

Super taxes

Tax on contributions

The tax paid on super contributions depends on your age and the amount and type of contribution. Where tax that the Trustee is responsible for paying applies, it is deducted after the contribution is received. It's important that you are aware there are limits on how much you can contribute to super (not just the contributions made to the Fund), and if you exceed these limits you will pay extra tax. In some cases the extra tax can be paid out of your account, and in other cases you must pay it out of your own pocket. The contribution caps for the 2024/2025 financial year are summarised below:

Type of contributions	Your age	Contribution cap	Tax
Concessional contributions	All ages	$30,000 [◇]	15%* tax on amounts up to your cap of each year. Amounts in excess of the cap are added to your assessable income and taxed at your marginal rate (plus an interest charge)
Non-concessional contributions	Under 75 years	$120,000 or up to $360,000 in the first year of a three year period [†]	0% tax on amounts up to your cap each year (subject to the bring-forward rule). Contributions in excess of the cap amount are taxed at 45% [^]

[◇] Subject to the unused balance rules. * An additional 15% tax is charged on some or all of these contributions if an individual's annual income (including before-tax contributions) is over $250,000. [^] Plus Medicare levy. [†] Subject to the bring forward provisions and your total superannuation balance.

Tax on investment earnings

Investment earnings are taxed at up to 15%. This tax is taken into account when calculating unit prices for the investment options applicable to your super (that is, before investment earnings are allocated to your account).

Tax on other benefit payments

Special tax arrangements apply to some benefit payments, for example, death benefits (which are usually tax-free if paid to a tax dependant), terminal illness benefits (which are tax-free if certain conditions are met) and Departing Australia Superannuation Payments (where different tax rules apply). Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, we are authorised to collect your tax file number (TFN), to be used for lawful purposes.

Tax on withdrawals

If you're under 60, tax on withdrawals is deducted before you receive your payment depending on the amount and components of your benefit (as set out in the following table, for the 2024/2025 financial year). Withdrawals are generally tax-free if you are aged 60 or over. Where tax applies it is deducted from your account before the benefit is paid.

Component	Age	Tax
Tax-free	All ages	0%
Taxable	If you are under 60	20%^
Taxable	60 years and over	0%

^ Plus Medicare levy

You should provide your tax file number as part of acquiring this product.

If we don't have your TFN, your before-tax (concessional) contributions and withdrawals are taxed at a higher rate and we can't accept after-tax (non-concessional) contributions from you. There may be other tax consequences.

You don't have to provide your TFN, but giving your TFN to us will have the following advantages:

- > The Fund will be able to accept all types of contributions on your behalf
- > The tax on contributions to your super account will not increase (unless you make excess contributions)
- > Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start withdrawing your super, and
- > It will be easier to trace different super accounts in your name so that you receive all your super when you retire.

If you transfer your super to another fund, we will give them your TFN unless you tell us not to in writing.

However, if you don't give us your TFN:

- > Contributions from your before-tax salary will be taxed at a higher rate (not 15%)
- > You won't be able to make after-tax contributions to your super
- > It may be more difficult to find your super if you change address without notifying us or to combine any multiple super accounts you may have, and
- > You may not receive any co-contributions to which you are entitled.

The purposes for which we are authorised to collect your TFN may change in the future as a result of legislative changes.

How to provide your TFN to us

If recorded on your account, your TFN would have been supplied as part of the merger between Active Super and Vision Super on 1 March 2025. If not you can supply it online. Just login to your account at www.activesuper.com.au and enter your details. For more general information about how tax applies to super contributions, investment earnings, withdrawals and how super works see www.moneysmart.gov.au and www.ato.gov.au. Up to date information is available from the ATO's website at www.ato.gov.au/rates/key-superannuation-rates-and-thresholds.

Any taxes payable by the Trustee to the ATO are deducted from member accounts or investment earnings (as applicable) and remitted to the ATO when due.

8. Insurance in your super

Active Super Choice provides Basic insurance cover (Basic cover) to eligible members, which comprises Basic Death Cover (which includes Terminal illness cover) and Basic Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) Cover. Cover is automatically provided when you are:

- > Aged 25 years or older; and
- > Your account balance reaches $6,000, or more.

Basic cover is subject to meeting all eligibility criteria* included in our insurance policy.

Members who are under age 25 and/or have an account balance less than $6,000 but meet the other eligibility criteria* can opt-in to commence Basic cover earlier. An opt-in election can only be made before reaching the age 25/$6,000 account balance criteria.

If you are under the age of 15, insurance is not available to you. You must wait until you turn 15 to opt in to automatically receive Basic cover you are eligible for.

The Basic cover provided to you for the first time is subject to a five-year pre-existing condition (PEC) exclusion.

The five-year PEC exclusion applies for 12 months and is removed only when you are at work for a period of 60 consecutive days, (provided that the 60th day occurs at least 12 months after your Basic cover commenced) or you successfully apply to have the PEC exclusion removed before the 12 months have elapsed.

If you already held Basic cover at 1 July 2022, a five year pre-existing condition (PEC) exclusion will not normally apply to any additional units of Basic cover provided to you after 1 July 2022 (ie when you attain age 25 or age 30 after 1 July 2022). However, if you had previously reduced the number of Basic cover units you held, the five year PEC exclusion applies to the new Basic cover units you receive for a period of 12 months and is removed only when you are at work for a period of 60 consecutive days (provided that the 60th day occurs at least 12 months after the date you were provided additional units of Basic cover) or you successfully apply to have the PEC exclusion removed before the 12 months have elapsed.

This means that any newly-provided Basic cover may be subject to different terms to the Basic cover you already hold. The costs associated with any insurance cover are deducted from your account balance. You are responsible for ensuring your account has sufficient funds available to meet the ongoing insurance costs.

Unless you choose to cancel your basic death and TPD cover, the cost of the cover will continue to be deducted from your account (see further details in this section).

* Refer to Section 8 of this PDS and the Active Super Choice Insurance guide for further information about eligibility criteria for basic death and TPD cover.

You can opt out of Basic cover at any time after it commences. Please refer to the Active Super Choice Insurance guide for more information.

Basic cover is provided in a linked combination of units based on your age next birthday:

Age next birthday	Death units	TPD units	Cost per month male	Cost per month female
16-25	5	15	$9.92	$10.50
26-30	10	10	$11.77	$10.97
31-70	15	5	$13.63	$11.45

The level of cover changes at different age groups. The amount of Basic insurance cover you receive is tailored to the general needs and risk profile of your age group.

For details on the amount of cover at each age, please refer to the Active Super Choice Insurance guide.

The cost of Basic insurance cover depends on your gender and the type of cover:

	Death per unit per month	TPD per unit per month
Male	$0.774	$0.403
Female	$0.596	$0.501

Premiums for the Basic insurance cover are deducted from your account. If you wish to cancel or reduce your Basic insurance cover, you can do so by logging into Member Online or via the Active Super Mobile app, or by completing the Reduce or cancel insurance cover form, available at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/. Please refer to the Active Super Choice Insurance guide for more information.

Please note: If you are eligible to receive the Basic insurance cover automatically, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your account unless you decline to acquire Basic insurance cover or cancel the cover. If your account has not received a contribution in 16 months, your insurance will be cancelled unless you have opted in to keep your cover. See the Active Super Choice Insurance guide available at www.activesuper.com.au/PDS for more information.

Voluntary insurance cover

Active Super also provides the option for members to apply for additional Voluntary insurance cover. The types and levels of cover available are:

- > Death cover: Unlimited cover
- > Death and TPD cover: Up to $3,000,000
- > Salary continuance cover: Up to $300,000 per annum.

You can apply for this cover online through the secure member portal or by completing a Voluntary insurance cover form available at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/. All applications are assessed (underwritten) by the insurer.

The cost of cover is dependent upon assessment by the insurer and takes into consideration factors such as your age, gender, occupation, etc.

Key life events and transferring cover

You can obtain extra insurance whenever a qualifying life event occurs for you, for example when you take out a mortgage for your home, marry, divorce or have a new baby.

You may also transfer any existing insurance held by other insurers provided certain eligibility criteria can be met. All insurance options are subject to relevant terms and conditions in the insurance policy. Please refer to the Active Super Choice Insurance guide for more information.

Reducing or cancelling your cover

You may cancel or reduce your cover at any time:

- > Over the phone by calling the Contact Centre on 1300 300 820, or
- > Going online to the secure member portal, or
- > A written notification to cancel or reduce your cover, or
- > A completed Insurance application/variation form (which can be downloaded from the Fund's website at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/).

Any reduction or cancellation of cover will take effect from the earlier of the date on which we receive your request, or the date specified in your request (provided that it is after the date on which we receive your request). If you cancel your cover within 60 days of first receiving the cover, it will be deemed to not have commenced and no insurance fees will be deducted from your account. Any requests received after this time will be effective from the date the request is received, and insurance fees will be deducted up until that date. Requests to reduce or cancel cover are subject to the Fund rules and the relevant insurance policy/policies applying to your cover. If your account balance is insufficient to cover the insurance fees your cover will be cancelled. You will no longer be able to claim an insured benefit for injury or illness arising after your cover has been cancelled.

Cessation of cover and exclusions

Insurance cover may cease on the occurrence of certain events such as when your account has been inactive⁴ for more than 16 consecutive months. There are also certain exclusions which apply to the cover, such as where your death or disability is caused by war or suicide (including attempted suicide) or, in some circumstances results from a pre-existing medical condition.

⁴ Inactive means that no amounts (contributions or rollovers) have been received into your account for a period of 16 months or more.

Claims

If you make an insurance claim, the Trustee and the insurer will determine whether you are entitled to a benefit based on the terms of the policy/policies, the Fund's rules, the law, and the level of cover that you have under the policy/policies.

10. Changing jobs

When you change jobs take your Active Super Choice account with you!

If you're changing jobs, your new employer will usually ask you to nominate a super fund – if you don't, your employer will pay your SG contributions into your stapled super fund, or if you do not have a stapled fund, then into the employer's preferred super fund. The right fund can make a real difference to how much you save for your future.

You can tell your employer where to contribute

If you want your employer to contribute to your Active Super Choice account, simply login to your account at www.activesuper.com.au and complete and send a choice form directly to your employer telling them to pay their SG contributions for you to your Active Super Choice account.
