Active Super Saver is part of Vision Super, which is a profit for members superannuation fund with a proud heritage of delivering quality services to its members. We understand that your investment with us reflects the trust you place in our capabilities and reputation. That is why we place members' financial interests first. As a profit for members fund, we try to keep member fees and costs as low as possible without compromising our investment performance and service. Vision MySuper and Choice members

Vision Super is a MySuper authorised fund. Vision Super has two MySuper products, Active Super Saver, which has a Large Employer MySuper authorisation, and its standard employer sponsored MySuper authorisation, Vision Super Saver. This PDS contains information about the Active Super Saver Lifestage product only.

Active Super Saver is open to employees of employers who qualify to contribute to this plan, including all current Local Government authorities in NSW.

All contributions for new Active Super Saver members who do not make an investment selection are invested in the default Active Super Lifestage Product (MySuper product). If you have any investment in the default Lifestage investment option, you are a MySuper member. Members who do not have any investment in the default Lifestage investment option are Choice members.

Choice and MySuper members have access to identical insurance and services. Active Super Saver offers five investment options to Active Super Saver members, four premixed options, which includes three options across the Lifestage product and one single sector option. This lets you mix and match your investments to suit your goals. There is also a range of insurance options for Active Super Saver members.

2. HOW SUPER WORKS

Superannuation (super) is a long-term investment which is, in part, compulsory and the sooner you start putting money into your account, the better off you can be when you retire. Tax concessions and other government benefits generally make super one of the best long-term investment vehicles.

Types of super contributions

Generally, if you are 18 years of age or over (or under 18 years of age, and working more than 30 hours per week), your employer is required to pay compulsory superannuation guarantee (SG) contributions for you. Most working people can choose the fund to which their employer pays their SG contributions. If you don't provide your new employer with complete information on which fund you want contributions paid into, your employer will generally pay your contributions into your 'stapled fund' (as notified to your employer by the Australian Taxation Office).

This is usually your most recently 'active' super fund. If you don't have a stapled fund and haven't chosen your own fund, SG contributions will generally be made to your employer's nominated default super fund. In some instances, you may have no choice due to the terms and conditions of your employment. Any contributions made by your employer are called concessional contributions.

Concessional contributions also include tax deductible (voluntary) super contributions, for which you have claimed a deduction (also referred to as personal deductible contributions) and contributions you voluntarily make by arrangement with your employer through salary sacrifice of your pre-tax salary.

You can also make voluntary contributions out of your after-tax earnings or savings (called non-concessional contributions).

If you're a low to middle income earner, and make additional after-tax contributions to your super, you may also be eligible for a government co-contribution.

Super's tax-effectiveness is due to tax concessions provided by the federal government. Concessional contributions are generally subject to a maximum 15% tax rate. Where your total annual concessional contributions exceed the limit set by the government, additional tax is generally payable. The tax rate on concessional contributions for individuals with income greater than $250,000 pa (including their concessional contributions) is generally 30%. Please refer to Section 7 of this PDS on How super is taxed.

Once your contributions are in the Fund, the investment earnings on those contributions are taxed at a concessional rate up to 15% pa. When you reach 60, you pay no tax on withdrawals.

There are limits to the amounts you can contribute or withdraw from your super. Visit the Australian Securities and Investments Commission website, www.moneysmart.gov.au, and the Australian Taxation Office website, www.ato.gov.au for more information on super. If your account or your MySuper/choice portion of your account is less than $6,000, has no insurance and is 'inactive', we will transfer it to the ATO. Generally, it will be inactive if in the last 16 months there have been no contributions or rollovers, no changes to investment options or insurance and you have not made or changed a binding nomination on the account.

More information about how super works is set out in our additional guide titled 2. How super works – additional guide. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision. Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

4. RISKS OF SUPER

All investments carry risk, including the investments you have access to as an Active Super Saver member. Super funds invest in a diverse range of assets, including Australian and overseas shares, private equity, property, bonds, credit, infrastructure and cash which are included in different investment strategies. Each investment strategy has a different risk profile depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy. Those assets offering the highest long-term returns, such as equities, may also carry the highest level of short-term risk. The significant risks that may be relevant to your Active Super Saver investment include:

- Equity risk
- Inflation and interest rate risk
- Credit risk
- Liquidity risk
- Currency risk
- Operational risk
- Changes to government policy and legislation
- Climate/ESG risk.

Investment strategies usually involve balancing the potential returns from chosen investments with the risks associated with them. Diversifying investments is a strategy that allows money to be allocated to a range of assets in order to manage risk, which includes reducing the volatility (up and down fluctuations) of investments.

The appropriate level of risk for you will depend on a variety of factors, including your age, your investment timeframe, whether you have other savings outside of super, and your risk tolerance.

Investment returns are not guaranteed. Over time, the value of your super may go up and down. The level of investment earnings will vary and the returns you receive in the past may not be the same as those you receive in the future. There is a risk that you may lose money or that the cost of living increases faster than your super grows, leaving you with inadequate savings for your retirement.

Superannuation and tax laws may change in the future affecting your financial and retirement planning. You should try to stay informed about changes to superannuation and tax laws and consider how these changes may affect you.

The information about risks shown here is general information only and does not consider your objectives, financial situation or needs. It may be worth consulting a professional financial adviser to assist in developing an investment and savings strategy that will help you achieve your retirement goals, taking into account your personal circumstances (including risk tolerance).

More information about the risks of investing in super is set out in our additional guide titled 4. Risks of investing in super – additional guide. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision.

Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. HOW WE INVEST YOUR MONEY

You should consider the likely investment return, risk and your investment timeframe when choosing the Active Super Saver Lifestage product or other investment option to invest in. Past performance is no indication of future performance. Neither the Trustee, nor any employees or directors of the Trustee, guarantee the repayment of contributions or the performance of the Fund or its investment options.

Active Super Saver's range of investment options allows you to choose investments suited to your financial goals and tolerance to risk.

You can invest in one or more of the following Active Super Saver investment options:

ACTIVE SUPER SAVER LIFESTAGE	PREMIXED	SINGLE SECTOR
Further details below	High growth	Managed cash
	Balanced
	Conservative balanced
	Conservative

If you do not nominate an investment option, we will invest your super (both contributions and accumulated savings) in the default Active Super Saver Lifestage (MySuper product). More details on this option are set out on the following page. We may vary, add or remove investment options occasionally. We will advise you in advance if this happens, where possible. You can switch between investment options to suit your changing financial goals but be aware that doing so may incur a buy-sell spread (see '6. Fees and Costs – additional guide'). You can switch between investment options via the secure members' area of the website at www.activesuper.com.au, or by completing and lodging the Investment choice election form. Using either method, you can change your investment strategy for your existing account balance, your future contributions or for both.

More information about how we invest your money (including about all our investment options) is set out in our additional guide titled 5. How we invest your money – additional guide. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision.

Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. HOW WE INVEST YOUR MONEY (CONTINUED)

Active Super Saver Lifestage (MySuper product)

The Active Super Saver Lifestage Product automatically adjusts your investment strategy based on your age. This product may be suitable for you if you want to grow your super over the long term, and have your balance moved to lower-risk investments as you approach 55. In this strategy we adjust your investments at ages 50 and 55. We do this for you, so you don't have to.

Accelerator (up to age 49)

We invest your money in higher growth, higher risk investments when you're younger and may be able to take on more risk. Accelerator invests in the High growth investment option.

Accumulator (age 50-54)

At this age, members may be starting to think about limiting the downside of any significant market fall, while still benefiting from the market rising. Accumulator invests in the Balanced investment option.

Appreciator (age 55 and above)

Members may be moving into the last stage of their full-time working life and may want to ensure their accumulated super balance continues to grow, but with less exposure to significant falls in the market that could lead to delaying retirement or adjusting your lifestyle based on a lower balance when you retire. Appreciator invests in the Conservative balanced investment option.

6. FEES AND COSTS

The fees and costs summary below shows the fees and other costs that you may be charged, if you are invested in the Active Super Lifestage product, which is the investment strategy for Active Super Saver's MySuper product, and can be used to compare fees and costs between different superannuation products. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole.

The fees and costs for other investment options are different. You should read all the information about fees and other costs, including information set out in our additional guide titled 6. Fees and costs – additional guide, because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

CONSUMER ADVISORY WARNING

Did you know? Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser*.

To find out more If you would like to find out more or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneySMART.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

*Fees and costs for Active Super Saver are not negotiable.

7. HOW SUPER IS TAXED

The following is a summary of the key tax rules specifically relating to superannuation. These tax rules are complex and frequently change. In some circumstances, other tax rules may also be relevant.

For more information visit www.ato.gov.au or consider whether you should consult a taxation adviser. The impact of tax rules depends on your personal situation.

Super taxes

Various taxes are payable in relation to super including:

Contributions tax

All employer contributions including salary sacrifice contributions and any personal (member) contributions for which a tax deduction is claimed, are usually subject to contribution tax of up to 15%. Individuals with income greater than $250,000 pa (including their concessional contributions) may be required to pay contributions tax of 30% while low-income earners may receive a rebate of the 15% tax on their employer contributions. Any contributions you make from your after-tax earnings or savings are usually not taxed.

There are government-imposed limits on contributions, both pre-tax (concessional) and after-tax (non-concessional), that can be made to super each year. The limits apply to all your super contributions (not just the contributions made to Vision Super).

You should be aware that if you exceed the contribution limits, there will be taxation consequences including additional tax will be payable.

In some cases, the additional tax can be paid from your account. But, in other cases, you will have to pay the extra tax out of your own pocket. These tax rules are complex. For more information visit www.ato.gov.au or consider whether you should consult a taxation adviser.

Taxes on investment earnings

Active Super Saver's investment earnings are subject to tax at a maximum rate of 15% pa.

Taxes on withdrawals

Tax is also payable on any withdrawals of your benefits in cash depending on your age, the amount and whether your benefit consists of a tax-free component and/or taxable component.

Once you turn 60, no tax will apply to any withdrawals you receive (lump sums or income streams/pensions).

Special tax arrangements apply to some benefit payments, for example, death benefits (which are usually tax free if paid to a tax dependant), terminal illness benefits (which are tax free if certain conditions are met) and Departing Australia Superannuation Payments (where different tax rates apply).

Tax File Numbers

One of the most important things to do when you become a member of Active Super Saver is provide us with your tax file number (TFN). Any taxes payable by the Trustee to the ATO are deducted from member accounts or investment earnings (as applicable) and remitted to the ATO when due.

You should provide your tax file number as part of acquiring this product.

We are authorised under the law to collect, use and disclose your TFN. Your employer may be obliged to provide your TFN to us. However, this does not always occur. We can only use your TFN for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative changes. We disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you instruct us in writing that your TFN is not to be disclosed to another provider. You are not obliged to provide us with your TFN. However, if you do not, you may pay more tax than you need to, we won't be able to accept all permitted types of contributions for you or it may be more difficult to identify all your super entitlements. If you are unsure whether we have your TFN, you can call Member Care on 1300 547 873.

For information about how tax applies to super contributions, investment earnings, withdrawals and how super works see www.moneysmart.gov.au and www.ato.gov.au. Tax rates and thresholds may vary from year to year. Up-to-date information is available from the ATO's website at www.ato.gov.au/Rates/Key-superannuation-rates-and-thresholds/.

More information about how super is taxed is set out in our additional guide titled 7. How super is taxed – additional guide. You should read the important information in this guide before making a decision.

Please note the material in this guide may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

8. INSURANCE IN YOUR SUPER

Active Super Saver provides Basic insurance cover (Basic cover) to eligible members, which comprises Basic Death Cover (which includes Terminal illness cover) and Basic Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) Cover. Cover is automatically provided when you are:

- Aged 25 years or older; and
- Your account balance reaches $6,000, or more.

Basic cover is subject to meeting all eligibility criteria* included in our insurance policy.

New members who are under age 25 and/or have an account balance less than $6,000 but meet the other eligibility criteria* can opt-in to commence Basic cover earlier. An opt-in election can only be made before reaching the age 25/$6,000 account balance criteria.

If you are under the age of 15, insurance is not available to you. You must wait until you turn 15 to opt in to automatically receive Basic cover you are eligible for.

8. INSURANCE IN YOUR SUPER (CONTINUED)

The Basic cover provided to you for the first time is subject to a five-year pre-existing condition (PEC) exclusion. The five-year PEC exclusion applies for 12 months and is removed only when you are at work for a period of 60 consecutive days, (provided that the 60th day occurs at least 12 months after your Basic cover commenced) or you successfully apply to have the PEC exclusion removed before the 12 months have elapsed.

If you already held Basic cover at 1 July 2022, a five year pre-existing condition (PEC) exclusion will not normally apply to any additional units of Basic cover provided to you after 1 July 2022 (ie when you attain age 25 or age 30 after 1 July 2022). However, if you had previously reduced the number of Basic cover units you held, the five year PEC exclusion applies to the new Basic cover units you receive for a period of 12 months and is removed only when you are at work for a period of 60 consecutive days (provided that the 60th day occurs at least 12 months after the date you were provided additional units of Basic cover) or you successfully apply to have the PEC exclusion removed before the 12 months have elapsed.

This means that any newly-provided Basic cover may be subject to different terms to the Basic cover you already hold. The costs associated with any insurance cover are deducted from your account balance. You are responsible for ensuring your account has sufficient funds available to meet the ongoing insurance costs.

Unless you choose to cancel your basic death and TPD cover, the cost of the cover will continue to be deducted from your account (see further details in this section).

* Refer to this page and to page 3 of 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide for further information about eligibility criteria for basic death and TPD cover.

You can opt out of Basic cover at any time after it commences. Please refer to 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide for more information.

Basic cover is provided in a linked combination of units based on your age next birthday:

AGE NEXT BIRTHDAY	DEATH UNITS	TPD UNITS	COST PER MONTH MALE	COST PER MONTH FEMALE
16-25	5	15	$9.92	$10.50
26-30	10	10	$11.77	$10.97
31-70	15	5	$13.63	$11.45

The level of cover changes at different age groups.

The amount of Basic insurance cover you receive is tailored to the general needs and risk profile of your age group.

For details on the amount of cover at each age, please refer to the 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide.

The cost of Basic insurance cover depends on your gender and the type of cover:

	DEATH PER UNIT PER MONTH	TPD PER UNIT PER MONTH
Male	$0.774	$0.403
Female	$0.596	$0.501

Premiums for the Basic insurance cover are deducted from your account. If you wish to cancel or reduce your Basic insurance cover, you can do so by logging into Member Online or via the Active Super Mobile app, or by completing the Reduce or cancel insurance cover form, available at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/. Please refer to the 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide for more information.

Please note: If you are eligible to receive the Basic insurance cover automatically, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your account unless you decline to acquire Basic insurance cover or cancel the cover. If your account has not received a contribution in 16 months, your insurance will be cancelled unless you have opted in to keep your cover. See the 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide available at www.activesuper.com.au/PDS for more information.

Voluntary insurance cover

Active Super Saver also provides the option for members to apply for additional Voluntary insurance cover. The types and levels of cover available are:

- Death cover: Unlimited cover
- Death and TPD cover: Up to $3,000,000
- Salary continuance cover: Up to $300,000 per annum.

You can apply for this cover online through the secure member portal or by completing a Voluntary insurance cover form available at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/. All applications are assessed (underwritten) by the insurer.

The cost of cover is dependent upon assessment by the insurer and takes into consideration factors such as your age, gender, occupation, etc.

Key life events and transferring cover

You can obtain extra insurance whenever a qualifying life event occurs for you, for example when you take out a mortgage for your home, marry, divorce or have a new baby.

You may also transfer any existing insurance held by other insurers provided certain eligibility criteria can be met. All insurance options are subject to relevant terms and conditions in the insurance policy. Please refer to 8. Insurance in your super – additional guide for more information.

Reducing or cancelling your cover

You may cancel or reduce your cover at any time:

- Over the phone by calling Member Care on 1300 547 873, or
- Going online to the secure member portal, or
- A written notification to cancel or reduce your cover, or
- A completed Insurance application/variation form which can be downloaded from the Fund's website at www.activesuper.com.au/the-basics/tools-and-resources/forms/.

Any reduction or cancellation of cover will take effect from the earlier of the date on which we receive your request, or the date specified in your request (provided that it is after the date on which we receive your request). If you cancel your cover within 60 days of first receiving the cover, it will be deemed to not have commenced and no insurance fees will be deducted from your account. Any requests received after this time will be effective from the date the request is received, and insurance fees will be deducted up until that date. Requests to reduce or cancel cover are subject to the Fund rules and the relevant insurance policy/policies applying to your cover. If your account balance is insufficient to cover the insurance fees your cover will be cancelled. You will no longer be able to claim an insured benefit for injury or illness arising after your cover has been cancelled.

Cessation of cover and exclusions

Insurance cover may cease on the occurrence of certain events such as when your account has been inactive⁴ for more than 16 consecutive months. There are also certain exclusions which apply to the cover, such as where your death or disability is caused by war or suicide (including attempted suicide) or, in some circumstances results from a pre-existing medical condition.

⁴Inactive means that no amounts (contributions or rollovers) have been received into your account for a period of 16 months or more.

Claims

If you make an insurance claim, the Trustee and the insurer will determine whether you are entitled to a benefit based on the terms of the policy/policies, the Fund's rules, the law, and the level of cover that you have under the policy/policies.

An account may be opened for your with effect from 1 March 2025 if you have been transferred to the Fund under a successor fund arrangement. You will have received a notice from your transferring fund about this.
